for Visual Impairments

Service Definitions

Food Pantries

Programs that acquire food products through donations, canned food drives, food bank programs or direct purchase and distribute the food to people who are in emergency situations. Some pantries deliver food to people whose disabilities or illnesses make it difficult for them to leave home.

AIDS/HIV

Individuals who are at risk or have tested positive for infection with the Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV), or have developed AIDS which is caused by the HIV virus and impairs the function of the body's immune system leaving affected individuals vulnerable to illnesses that would not otherwise occur.

Allergies

A condition in which the individual has an acquired hypersensitivity to substances that normally do not cause a reaction. Manifestations most commonly involve the respiratory tract or skin and include eczema, hay fever, bronchial asthma, hives, inflammation of the nasal mucous membrane and nasal discharge.

Celiac Disease

An intestinal malabsorption syndrome that causes malnutrition and results in a wide variety of symptoms including abdominal pain and distention, diarrhea, constipation, anemia, bone and joint pain, depression and headaches.

Visual Impairments

Eye, optic nerve or brain malfunctions which prevent affected individuals from seeing normally. Eye disorders that can lead to visual impairments include retinal degeneration, albinism, cataracts, glaucoma, muscular problems that result in visual disturbances, corneal disorders, diabetic retinopathy, congenital disorders and infection.

The screenshot shows the 'Contact Us' page for 2-1-1 United Way of Summit County. The page has a dark blue header with the 2-1-1 logo and United Way logo. Navigation links include 'HOME', 'ABOUT', 'DATA DASHBOARD', 'CONTACT', 'SERVICE PROVIDERS', 'ENEWSLETTER', and 'SEARCH TIPS'. A 'Select Language' dropdown is in the top right. The main heading is 'Contact Us' with a 'Back' button. The page is divided into two columns. The left column, titled 'Ways to Contact Us', lists: 'Call 2-1-1 or 330-376-6660, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week for live assistance.', 'Text your Zip Code to 898-211', 'Email using the contact form below. You will receive a response by email within 3 business days. To submit updates to your own agency information, visit the Service Provider tab.', and 'Mail us at United Way of Summit County 2-1-1,'. Below this is a photo of a smiling woman wearing a headset. The right column, titled 'Contact Form', says 'Select the dropdown subject line that best matches your request.' and lists four options: 'Getting Help', 'Community Resource Updates', 'Speaker Request', and '2-1-1 Material Request'. At the bottom of the right column is a 'Subject*' dropdown menu with a placeholder text '[(select subject)]'. The footer contains the 2-1-1 logo and United Way of Summit County logo.
